NO MONEY IN SIGHT

SAY SUPERVISORS

FOR THE BAND BOYS

If the band boys have any hope of collecting wages from the County for any part of the time they were away from Honolulu, as Joe Cohen says they should, they are liable to be badly disappointed. The matter came up before the Board of Supervisors at the meeting last night, and any such proposition as that was firmly and emphatically sat down upon. It was even decided that their salaries are not to recommence until the first of next month. If anybody is to pay them for playing on Thanksgiving day, it will have to be the Territory, as members of the militia.

Cohen cheered up the hearts of the boys by informing them that when they returned to Honolulu, they would find two months' salary waiting for them.

"Not on your life," said Jack Lucas when Archer suggested that Cohen had told the boys that they were to be paid two months' salary.

"The boys made individual contracts with Cohen," said Supervisor Moore. "We have nothing to do with it." Moore brought up the matter by suggesting that the Board had given Cohen permission to take the band away, and that, as there have been many stories of ill-treatment, he thought the Board ought to have Cohen make a report to it.

Smith objected to this. He said that Cohen had called on him and offered to make such a report, but he had informed Cohen that any such report would be looked upon as biased. He advised him, therefore to turn over his vouchers and books to some uninterested auditing concern and let them audit the books and make a report. Cohen, he said, had agreed to this.
